A BILL

To prevent homegrown terrorism, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Homegrown Terrorism
5 Prevention Act of 2007”.

6 SEC. 2. PREVENTION OF HOMEGROWN TERRORISM.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—Title VIII of the Homeland Secu-
8 rity Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 361 et seq.) is amended by 9 adding at the end the following new subtitle:

“Subtitle J—Prevention of Homegrown Terrorism

“SEC. 899A. DEFINITIONS.

“For purposes of this subtitle:

“(1) HOMEGROWN TERRORISM.—The term ‘homegrown terrorism’ means the use, planned use, or threatened use, of force or violence by a group or individual born, raised, or based and operating primarily within the United States or any possession of the United States to intimidate or coerce the United States government, the civilian population of the United States, or any segment thereof, in furtherance of political or social objectives.

“(2) RADICALIZATION.—The term ‘radicalization’ means the process of adopting or promoting an extremist belief system for the purpose of facilitating ideologically-based violence to advance political, religious, or social change.

“(3) IDEOLOGICALLY-BASED VIOLENCE.—The term ‘ideologically-based violence’ means the use, planned use, or threatened use of force or violence by a group or individual to promote the group or individual’s political, religious, or social beliefs.

“SEC. 899B. FINDINGS.

“The Congress finds the following:

1 “(1) The development and implementation of
2 methods and processes that can be utilized to pre-
3 vent homegrown terrorism in the United States is
4 critical to combating domestic terrorism.

5 “(2) The promotion of ideologically-based vio-
6 lence and homegrown terrorism exists in the United
7 States and poses a threat to homeland security.

8 “(3) The Internet has aided in facilitating ideo-
9 logically-based violence and the homegrown ter-
10 rorism process in the United States by providing ac-
11 cess to broad and constant streams of terrorist-re-
12 lated propaganda to United States citizens.

13 “(4) While the United States must continue its
14 vigilant efforts to combat international terrorism, it
15 must also strengthen efforts to combat the threat
16 posed by homegrown terrorists based and operating
17 within the United States.

18 “(5) Understanding the motivational factors
19 that lead to homegrown terrorism is a vital step to-
20 ward eradicating these threats in the United States.

21 “(6) The potential rise of self radicalized, unaf-
22 filiated terrorists domestically cannot be easily pre-
23 vented through traditional Federal intelligence or
24 law enforcement efforts, and requires the incorpora-
25 tion of State and local solutions.

1 “(7) Individuals prone to ideologically-based vi-
2 olence span all races, ethnicities, and religious be-
3 liefs, and individuals should not be targeted based
4 solely on race, ethnicity, or religion.

5 “(8) Any measure taken to prevent ideologi-
6 cally-based violence and homegrown terrorism in the 7 United States should not violate the constitutional
8 rights, civil rights and civil liberties of United States
9 citizens and lawful permanent residents.

10 “(9) Certain governments, including the United
11 Kingdom, Canada, and Australia have significant ex-
12 perience with homegrown terrorism and the United
13 States can benefit from lessons learned by those na-
14 tions.
